Council Reports

- Councilmember Wilcox spoke about the start of a high school internship in North Beach. The Town is just in the initial stage and discussion on an internship.
- Councilmember Dotson wished everyone a Happy New Year and thanked residents for coming out.
- Councilmember Hummel thanked everyone for coming out tonight and thanked the Town residents for decorating their homes for Christmas. He made residents aware of the Christmas Balls the North Beach History Museum is selling. The intent is that every year they will produce another one.
- Councilmember Healey thanked the residents for coming out tonight and thanked residents for their comments.
- Councilmember Kabler responded to Town resident Bob Grays's suggestion for the 7th Street Outfall. She made him aware of the Flood Committee's commitment to that area after the completion of the design for 9th Street. Councilmember Kabler provided a written report which can be found in BoardDocs. One of her highlights is seeing a pelican flying over the Bay.

Adjournment

- A MOTION was made by Councilmember M. Healey to adjourn the meeting. Seconded by Councilmember Wilcox. All in favor. Meeting closes.
